Farlin Intelligence

Prioritize Tables for Pricing and Discount Review

Tables has the lowest profit margin (−8.46%) and largest dollar loss (−$16,937.44) of any product subcategory.

Profit margin (%). Five of 17 subcategories shown to illustrate the transition from positive to negative profitability.

Why Profit Margin?

Profit margin enables consistent profitability comparisons across subcategories of different sales sizes.

The Profitability Gap: 5.53 Percentage Points

Tables' -8.46% margin trails Bookcases (-2.93%), the next-lowest subcategory.

Recommended Action

Prioritize Tables for pricing and discount review. Assess demand and costs before considering discontinuation.

Prepared for Data Visualization Course, University of Arizona.
Course scenario using a provided dataset.